

Technology Agreement

Parents and Students, please read this document together.

The access to Immanuel Lutheran School's electronic tools and systems is a privilege, not a right. Through this system, students are able to communicate with other schools, organizations, teachers, and individuals and have access to hundreds of research, content, creative works, and services. Students are reminded to use all of these tools as a gift from God and make all knowledge they learn, "captive to the Word of God." (Martin Luther)

ILS technology involves many types of communication and information networks. It is possible to access material that students and/or parents might find objectionable. While ILS has taken reasonable steps to restrict and filter content, it is impossible to guarantee that such access cannot or will not be gained. It is the student's responsibility to follow guidelines for appropriate use.

The following are the student's agreements about the use of technology:

- 1) I will not harm other people or their work.
- 2) I will not use any electronic communication to harass, intimidate, or bully anyone.
- 3) I will not damage, change, or tamper with hardware, software, settings, or the network equipment from ILS or on ILS property.
- 4) I will not interfere with the operation of the network or network traffic.
- 5) I will respect copyright laws by properly citing sources and not stealing intellectual property.
- 6) I will not seek, send, view, or display offensive messages or media.
- 7) I will not share passwords with another person.
- 8) I will not waste limited resources such as bandwidth or printing capacity.
- 9) I will not trespass on another student's or teacher's computing accounts, files, or work.
- 10) I will not attempt to access the Internet via any connection that bypasses the ILS content filters.
- 11) I will not give out personal information in online web tools (blogs, videos, wikis, etc.) that could help someone locate or contact me in person.
- 12) I will treat online web tools as classroom space remembering that "... whatever you do, do it all to the glory of God"
- 13) I will notify an adult immediately if by accident I encounter materials that violate these rules.
- 14) I am prepared to be held accountable for my action, for the loss of privileges, the loss of an educational experience, for appropriate consequences if these rules are violated.
- 15) I understand I have no right or expectation of privacy in my electronic communications.
- 16) I am aware all content created under ILS supervision is owned by ILS and me.
- 17) These expectations of responsible use apply to any and all times I am under ILS's supervision.
- 18) These expectations of responsible use do apply at any time in my life of sanctification.
